participated in the course

Behaviour Based Safety on 29 March 2018 in Singapore

The objectives of the course were to become familiar with the fundamentals of BBS and to gain a good understanding of how seafarers' behaviour can affect safety. Participants worked through the full scope of BBS in order to optimize their own attitudes and behaviours in relation to safety.

The following subjects were covered in detail:

- Understanding the benefits of quality BBS
- Identifying safe and unsafe behaviour
- Identifying attitudes that affect behaviour
- Human Element and Safety Culture
- Introducing ways to motivate seafarers and promote safe behaviour
- Practicing critical error reduction techniques enacted through BBS
- Introduction to safety intervention techniques
